

4th SUNDAY OF ADVENT (C)

1st. READING (Mic 5,1-4)

The Lord says this: you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, so small that you are hardly named among the clans of Judah, from you shall I raise the one who is to rule over Israel. For he comes forth from of old, from the ancient times. Yahweh, therefore, will abandon Israel until such time as she who is to give birth has given birth. Then the rest of his deported brothers will return to the people of Israel. He will stand and shepherd his flock with the strength of Yahweh, in the glorious Name of Yahweh, his God. They will live safely while he wins renown to the ends of the earth. He shall be peace. When the Assyrian invades our land and sets foot on our territory, we will raise against him not one but seven shepherds, eight warlords.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 80)

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High,
who rest in the shadow of the Almighty,

Shine forth before Ephraim,
Benjamin and Manasseh.
Stir up your might and come to save us.

Turn again, O Lord of hosts, look down from heaven and see;
care for this vine,
and protect the stock your hand has planted.

But lay your hand on your instrument,
on the son of man
whom you make strong for yourself.
Then we will never turn away from you;
give us life, and we will call on your name.

2nd. READING (Heb 10, 5-10)

This is why on entering the world, Christ says: You did not desire sacrifice and offering; 6 you were not pleased with burnt offerings and sin offerings. Then I said: "Here I am. It was written of me in the scroll. I will do your will, O God." First he says: Sacrifice, offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire nor were you pleased with them - although they were required by the Law. Then he says: Here I am to do your will. This is enough to nullify the first will and establish the new. Now, by this will of God, we are sanctified at once by the sacrifice of the body of Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL (Lk 1,39-45)

Mary then set out for a town in the Hills of Judah. She entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leapt in her womb. Elizabeth was filled with holy spirit, and giving a loud cry, said, "You are most blessed among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb! How is it that the mother of my Lord comes to me? The moment your greeting sounded in my ears, the baby within me suddenly leapt for joy. Blessed are you who believed that the Lord's word would come true!"
